

Under the provisions of Section 413.031 of the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, Title 5, Subtitle A of the Texas Labor Code, effective June 17, 2001 and Commission Rule 133.305, titled Medical Dispute Resolution-General, and 133.307, titled Medical Dispute Resolution of a Medical Fee Dispute, a review was conducted by the Medical Review Division regarding a medical fee dispute between the requestor and the respondent named above. This dispute was received on January 29 2002.

I. DISPUTE

1. Whether there should be additional reimbursement for Ambulatory Surgical Center care for date of service August 7, 2001.

II. RATIONALE

An EOB was submitted to the requestor denying the disputed date of service for “M – No MAR, reduced to fair and reasonable. Please note a 25% reduction in charges. ASC’s are not covered by the Medical Fee Guideline and shall be reimbursed at a fair and reasonable rate.

The Respondent did not submit a response therefore this review is based solely on the Requestor’s information. Rule 133.307(g)(3)(D) requires the requestor to discuss, demonstrate, and justify that the payment amount being sought is fair and reasonable. The Requestor billed $9,083.57 for the Ambulatory Surgical Center; the Respondent paid $4,284.41 leaving a balance of $4,799.16. The Requestor did not submit evidence to show that their charges were fair and reasonable and did not prove that the Respondents rate of reimbursement was not fair and reasonable.

III. DECISION

Based upon the review of the disputed healthcare services within this request, the Medical Review Division has determined that the Requestor is not entitled to reimbursement for Ambulatory Surgical Center.

The above Decision is here-by issued this 28th day of August 2003.
